METRO SEEKS PUBLIC INPUT ON MANAGING WASTE

Public meetings are taking place across Metro Vancouver over the next six weeks to hear public input on two waste management plans;

- Solid Waste Management Plan for the region's yearly 3.6 million tonnes of Garbage and Recycling
- Liquid Waste Management Plan for region's yearly 440 billion litres of Liquid Waste (sewerage).

The first meeting will be Tuesday, April 8, 2008 in Surrey at the Guildford Hotel at 15269 – 104th Ave. from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

The next meetings will occur in Richmond, Burnaby, North Vancouver, Vancouver, Coquitlam Maple Ridge and Langley.

Residents and business owners are encouraged to join the discussion about managing the region's solid and liquid waste.

Can't attend a meeting? Submit comments by May 23, 2008 to icentre@metrovancouver.org or by mail to Metro Vancouver, Public Involvement Division, 4330 Kingsway, Burnaby B.C., V5H 4G8.

Both draft plans, and more details on the meetings are available on the Metro Vancouver website at www.metrovancouver.org.
